3 留学生の Jane とホストマザーである Ms. Sato との対話文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

- Jane : I hear Ghibli Park opened in Aichi in 2022. 20
- Ms. Sato : No, not yet. I would like to go to Ghibli Park, but I am not going to visit it in haste.
- Jane : Why won't you go there right away?
- Ms. Sato : Because I would like to watch a lot of Studio Ghibli movies before visiting it. I will be able to enjoy it more if I understand the stories well.
- Jane : I see. I have never seen the movies, but I am interested in them.
- Ms. Sato : Shall we watch the movies together? And then we can go to Ghibli Park during your stay in Japan.
- Jane : Sounds great. 21
- Ms. Sato : Ghibli Park is in Expo 2005 Aichi Commemorative Park. (1) (ア is / イ do / ウ why / エ know / オ you / カ Ghibli Park) there?
- Jane : No, I don't. Could you tell me about it?
- Ms. Sato : The World Expo was held in Aichi in 2005. The theme of the Expo was 'Nature's Wisdom.'
- Jane : Nature's Wisdom? 22
- Ms. Sato : It is the idea of respecting nature — how people and nature should live together. It is based on the love for humans, creatures, and the earth. Studio Ghibli movies have a similar theme.
- Jane : You mean the theme of the Expo applies to that of Studio Ghibli movies?
- Ms. Sato : Yes, that's right.
- Jane : Now I understand why Ghibli Park is in that place.
- Ms. Sato : People can enjoy beautiful nature because Ghibli Park is in a large park. There are no attractions or rides like amusement parks. You are asked to discover lots of wonders by walking in nature.
- Jane : I like the idea that we should respect nature. It leads to the idea of the SDGs.
- Ms. Sato : Right. For example, 'Ghibli's Grand Warehouse,' the main area of Ghibli Park, was built by remodeling a swimming pool in the park.
- Jane : Wow! 23 I often hear nature is destroyed when a new facility is built. Using an old facility is a good idea to protect the environment.
- Ms. Sato : I think so, too. The area of Ghibli Park has been a park for a long time. We call it 'Morikoro Park,' named after the mascots of the Expo. The park has been popular with many people. I have visited the park many times, so I have a lot of memories. (2) Ghibli Park (ア me / イ remind / ウ memories / エ of / オ those / カ will).
- Jane : How nice! You will not only have a new experience 26 also remember precious memories by visiting Ghibli Park.
